

10- We generate social value for the community.

The integration of Ismael Quesada into local society translates into a positive impact that generates tangible improvements and beneficial synergies for numerous groups and causes. The company's commitment to the business sector is reflected in its participation in territorial and sectoral business organizations that share concerns, challenges and concerns. Such collaboration is an efficient way of promoting fair and balanced competition and improving relations between business, management and society as a whole.

Ismael Quesada is a member of various business organizations, such as the Association of Family Businesses of Alicante (AEFA), the Business Circle of Elche and Region (CEDELCO) and the National Consortium of Rubber Industry

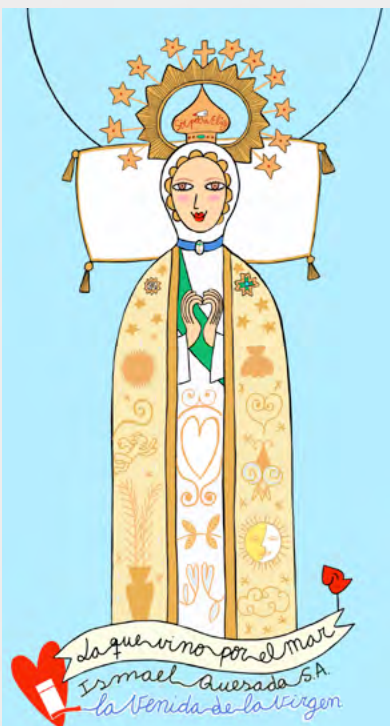

Origin of Ismael Quesada Suppliers

The direct economic impact of the company's activity is reflected in the provision of goods and services necessary for its operation. Although Ismael Quesada markets chemical products nationally and internationally, a significant part of its suppliers come from the local environment. During the year 2022, 41.76% of the company's suppliers were from the province of Alicante, of which 30.00% belonged to the city of Elche itself.

The social commitment of Ismael Quesada has also been manifested in 2022 in external collaborations with Third Sector entities that help people in vulnerable situations. This is the case of AFAE, the Association of Relatives of People with Alzheimer's of Elche, a local entity that meets the needs of this type of patients and their families thanks to the generosity of people and entities of Elche civil society

Also, in the field of external social action is framed the collaboration of the firm in one of the most emotional moments of the year for the people of Elche, the Coming of the Virgin. In this case, with the contribution to the magazine by providing an original drawing by the artist Dulce Quesada «Dolça».

In the other hand, the company maintains a commitment with the Puçol Project, an initiative recognized as a World Heritage Site and with great social and cultural roots in the city of Elche. In 2022, the collaborations with this emblematic educational Project have included participation in a volunteer day in February, in which a Group of children in a foster situation have been accompanied on the visit to the museum and a long route through the environment. Likewise, in April, Ismael Quesada participated in a workshop on braiding natural fibers within the Puçol Acoge Project, promoted by La Caixa Foundation.

In addition, Ismael Quesada conducts training activities for all those training centers interested in understanding our business model. In this case, it was an open day for the University of Alicante.

